Nevada 4-H
2011 Ag Volunteer Leader Of The Year
Nomination Form

In recognition of the role of agriculture in our global economy, the Nevada Agricultural Foundation is sponsoring the “4-H Volunteer Leader of the Year” award. This is an opportunity to recognize those who dedicate much time and energy to enhance the lives of 4-H Youth. The winner of this award will be honored at the 2012 4-H Leaders’ Forum Banquet, Saturday, March 10th, 6pm. He/she will have a short biography read, receive a certificate/plaque, and receive a $1,000.00 check to be used as he/she deems important for teaching supplies and the development of 4-H Youth.

This award is sponsored by the Nevada Agricultural Foundation and their criteria states that “the recipient should be that educator who each year has been the most creative and tenacious in incorporating the reality of agriculture in their youth curriculum or program.” Agricultural related subject matter areas cover a wide-range of topics, which include crop/animal production, food production/preservation, hydroponics, agricultural technology, natural resource/wildlife linkages to/for agriculture, conservation of resources to/for agriculture, use of agricultural products (wool, cotton, milk, meat, food, bio fuels, etc), agricultural leadership, and several other topics that relate to agriculture.

This form is due to the State 4-H Office on or before Friday, January 13, 2012. Please return the form to:
